

2019 “Wild Wild Sea” Chenin Blanc
Jurassic Park Vineyard, Santa Ynez Valley
125 cases produced

- ABV: 11.8%
- pH: 3.4
- TA: 0.56 g/100mL
- Vines planted in 1978
- Vineyard soils: Ancient beach, sand, limestone
- Farming practices: Sustainable
- Pick date: October 2, 2019
- Brix at harvest: 21°
- Hand-picked at sunrise
- Whole-cluster direct-to-press
- 8 months in neutral French oak barrels
- Native fermentation - primary & malolactic
- SO₂: 15ppm before bottling
- Unfined and unfiltered
- Bottled June 8, 2020
- The Name: Fossils abound in this sandy vineyard, planted on what was, long ago, the ocean floor. To walk the rows is to imagine our beloved, wild Pacific Ocean once there, an unstoppable force that has shaped our lives in ways we never could have expected.
- Winemakers: Emily Towe & Jody Brix Towe
- Suggested Retail Price: $28